TASK

SUBJECT: Intelligence Capabilities Research and Development Review ☐ 25X1

DISCUSSION: The DDCI has given approval for the Intelligence Research and Development Council to conduct a review of major Intelligence Community research and development programs which are being formulated in response to the 1985 Intelligence Capabilities Study. He agrees that the purpose of the review should be to determine if we are adequately leveraging emerging technologies in our planning and if there may be further opportunities for enhancing our efforts to provide for our future capabilities. ☐ 25X1

METHODOLOGY: Under the aegis of the Council, Dr. Robert S. Cooper will take the lead in the formation and administration of a working group to prepare the report. Membership in the group will include representatives from CIA, DIA, NSA, Army, Navy, Air Force, DARPA, DoE, SAFSS, DNI, OSTP, USDRE, and the IC Staff. ☐ 25X1

COMPLETION: The draft report should be available for presentation to the Council for consideration by the middle of July, with the final report due to the DDCI by the end of July. ☐ 25X1
